

Area Overview

You've heard the rumors, you've seen the photos, but you still wonder: could a fish attack happen to me? The simple answer is 'yes'. Since Asian carp were introduced to the Mississippi River, boaters have seen and felt the impact of these flying fish. But don't let this unsettling reality scare you away Cape Girardeau. We can say with confidence that a fish attack never has and never will happen on Pear Tree Inn's soil.

With all of these free amenities, it will be tough to pry yourself from your Cape Girardeau hotel room, but we suggest you try. The city is full of unique attractions, including the Red House Interpretative Center, Saint Vincent Church and the Missouri State Museum.
